The Perfect Wedding Day

For many couples, planning a wedding can be daunting and who better to help them than the experts themselves? And that's what happened on April 26, 2008 when Hilton Kuala Lumpur opened its doors to ten specially invited couples for an exclusive Bridal Seminar hosted by La Mer and Hilton Kuala Lumpur.

Ushered into a cosy room decorated with soft flowers and fragrant candles, the couples were welcomed with relaxing hand massages by specially trained La Mer consultants. The programme began thereafter when Helilia Juana Hashim, Senior Counter Manager from La Mer, showed guests how to care for their skin early – with the right products, miraculously flawless skin is possible. She passed the time to Loo Ee Ling, Managing Director and Eric Choong, Creative Director (and the designer himself) who opened up the eyes of the guests to the world of gown-shopping. An impromptu, lively Q&A session soon followed. Guests were then introduced to the attractive bridal packages available at Hilton Kuala Lumpur.

The event wrapped up with a delicious lunch treat and the couples went home fully contented and all ready to enjoy their gift boxes of exclusive La Mer products.
