THE ITALIAN INSPIRED CELEBRATION

For the globetrotting couple with a sense of fun and a discerning taste for the good things in life.

1. The restaurant creatively converted into a rustic wedding ceremony.
2. Tall pillar candle with a touch of silk in glass orange added to the rustic romance.
3. The bride joined her page boy and flower girl for a little fun and laughter at the wood swing.
4. Orange chiffon chair tie back, a simple addition to the ceremony décor.
5. Ring pillow crafted from Million Star flowers instead of the norm. Rings by Love and Co.
6. Delectable menu equates a delectable celebration. Menu card by Nineteen Design.

Inspiration

Inspired by old school Tuscan charm, the wedding was crafted to be a joyful food-filled occasion to remember. The daytime wedding had a touch of rustic Tuscan romance and guests also joined the happy couple at an Italian wedding feast made with the finest fresh ingredients true to the Tuscan way of life.

Colours

Brown, cream, orange, olive green and accents of black.

Materials

Oak, wood, linens, satin ribbons, stones, acrylics and diamantes for the décor, and imaginative use of florals such as Mokara Orchid, ivy runner, green reeds, gold roses, Camellias, White Mums, Cymbidiums, and Baby's Breath.

7. An elegant chandelier dressed the draped white canopy with a stunning table setting for the reception.
8. Bridesmaid with her unique hand bouquet in Eric Choong's old world glamour inspired gown, a beautiful hand beaded bodice of vine details and floral accents with tulle overlay gown that was perfect for the fun-loving bride to dance the night away in.
9. Various hand-crafted boutonnieres.
