ERIC CHOONG

Designer of haute couture and bridal gowns with timeless, classic appeal

"Since the PRESTIGE Ball theme this year is Diamonds, I have used Swarovski crystals liberally all over the top of the dress. It is made of silk chiffon and can be simple with an elegant boat neck, plunging back and a fishtail, so the crystals really dress it up. I've worked with Swarovski crystals a lot in the past few years, and they really are like diamonds on the dress. There is a bit of old Hollywood glamour about the look. I had Audrey Hepburn in mind when I designed this. She is my fashion muse and icon."
